SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The time has arrived for all the Sunday Schools that closed for the winter to be opened up and with a determination on the part of the leaders, especially, to not let them stop for winter again. I sincerely hope such will be the determination and efforts will be put forth to that end.
But just now we want to work, we must work not only to open up the sleeping schools, but to make those better, more efficient than ever before.
Sunday School people, superintendents, teachers, pupils, preachers, anyone, won't you work as never before to make more and better schools? The Lord's work is important, so let's be up and doing. Right soon I shall send out the report blanks and I beg of you to fill out these blanks as best you can (if it is not possible to give an exact record from any cause), fill it as best you can and return to me. If you read the information given a week or two ago in the Big Sandy News, and I hope you did, on Sunday Schools the State S. S. Association, what it does, and the purpose in trying to get the reports of the schools, I'm sure you will not hesitate to make out the reports and return to the County Secretary.

There will be a meeting of the S. S.
Executive Committee at Louisa Saturday, May 1st. Anyone who will attend would be welcome for we are anxious that many people in our beloved county of Lawrence take a great interest in this work, who have not heretofore been very much interested.
Come all who will and find out what we are trying to do for the people through the Sunday Schools. You are interested in the education of your children and it's right you should be, but what about their soul's welfare; of course you are interested in that, too, if you would only stop to consider it rightly. Then if you are, take them to Sunday School where they will be instructed in God's word.

Sunday, May 3rd, is "Go to Sunday School Day" in Kentucky, of course all Sundays are, but this day is especially designated by the State S. S.
Association as a day in which we should like to have at least one million people, men, women and children of Kentucky, in Sunday School. Go on that day, please, if you have never been in Sunday School, and if you have then keep on going all the year and you will become so interested in learning and teaching God's Holy Word that you will not stay away. If you have not yet organized, organize NOW. Ministers of the Gospel, especially do I appeal to you to help the Sunday School cause this year as you have never done before; but farmers, lawyers, merchants, doctors, schoolteachers, anyone and everyone, I beg you to help us in the Lord's work through the Sunday School.
Don't forget to fill out the reports please, and return to me at once after you receive them. We have some great workers in this cause and we want more. We beg your help, we pray that you will. Yours in His cause, EMMA THOMPSON,
Co. S. S. Secretary.

NIP IT AT THE "NIP."

The city attorney calls attention to the fact that the first "nip" is the beginning of a drunk, and that when a peace officer knows a man is drinking he should be made to get off the streets. These are the dangerous fellows, these chaps who put their "guns" into their pockets and then proceed to take the "nip." Don't wait until he is "full up" and ready to prove his condition as extenuation for killing someone. Nine hundred and ninety-nine thousandths of the killing is done under the stimulus of liquor.

PINE HILL CEMETERY.

Arrangements have been made with Mr. Hanna to clear off the unsold lots in the cemetery and lot owners can make arrangements with him at a very reasonable price to clear off their lots and keep them in good condition during the season. There have been a great many requests to have the pine trees taken off the unsold lots in order that the grass can grow. This will be done unless those interested oppose its being done.

AUGUSTUS SNYDER, Sec.

Dr. Lester Keller, of Ironton, has been admitted to membership as a Fellow in the American College of Surgeons, a newly formed organization of the most eminent surgeons in the his fellow citizens rejoice with Dr.

Keller that he has been chosen. He will receive his degree in June, at Philadelphia, along with the large number of other prominent surgeons.
Hereafter rigid examinations will be required for entrance into the college.

of Sandy Valley Seminary, but now in charge of a school at Laredo, Texas, is also a lay delegate to the General Conference from the Mexican Border Mission Conference.—Central

Frankfort, Ky., May 1.—Gov. Mc-Creary today issued a requisition on the Governor of West Virginia for the extradition of John and Press Hendrickson, indicted in Bell county on the charge of killing Tom Miller February 4. They are in Clay county, W.
Va.

Waugh Changes To Commonwealth's AttorneyTO THE VOTERS OF THE 32ND JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

I am at the present time the only announced candidate before the coming primary election for the Democratic nomination for Circuit Judge of this district. Since my announcement for Circuit Judge, I have had hundreds of letters from the most prominent and outstanding citizens of this district pledging and assuring me of their loyal and unqualified support for that office, but at the same time saying to me that I had filled the office that I now hold with such satisfaction to all the people, irrespective of party; that the criminal dockets of the district being nearer clean than they have been for twenty years; that law breakers were fewer; that the homes of the district felt secure, and taking these things into consideration, they believed I should remain another term as Commonwealth's Attorney.

They say that a change now would be hurtful to the enforcement of the criminal laws of the district; that the election of a new man, no matter how competent he might be would in some measure retard the work in the district in this branch of the law.

In addition to these letters, I have in my office petitions from fifteen hundred Democrats and a number of outstanding Republicans asking me to change my announcement and ask for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney again.

After a mature and careful consideration, and after advising with my friends over the district, and in the interest of party harmony; the enforcement of the laws, the protection of the homes, and my willingness and desire to always listen and act on the advice of friends and the good citizens of my country, I have decided to make this change.

Trusting that this change will meet with the approval of the good citizens of the district, I pledge myself to a fearless, honest, vigorous enforcement of the criminal laws of the district irrespective of party politics or any outside influence. With this pledge I again submit my claims to the law-abiding and upright people of this district.

Very truly yours,
JOHN M. WAUGH.

A BIG LOT OF CANS.

At the last meeting of the Nora Kennison Club it was agreed to make an effort to rid the streets, alleys and lots of Louisa of the unsightly tin cans which had littered them so long. To this end the club offered cash rewards to the boys who should collect the largest and the second largest number of cans, the cans to be counted by a committee from the club. The first prize should be a dollar, and the second one fifty cents. Saturday, May 2, was named collecting day, and several hundreds of various ages went to work.
The college campaign was made the temporary dumping ground, and there the count was made. The first prize was awarded to Heber Byington and the second to John C. Hatcher and his partner, George Mauger. One of this pair had not been very active in the work of collecting, and seeing defeat likely he pooled with the other. He will make a politician if he lives.

After the count the motley collection was thrown into a gully. More than 5000 cans had been gathered up, and it has been suggested that the city council might take the hint and in this way make a fine clean up of the town.

RULES FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

Jersey State Board of Health has issued the following rules, which are to shall effectively destroy their sputum (spit).

2. All persons suffering from run-

4. No person suffering from pulmonary or other communicable form of tuberculosis shall handle food designated for the use of others except when necessary in the performance of household duties, unless the food be wrapped in such a way as to protect it from contamination or unless some necessary subsequent process of preparation such as cooking will sterilize it and prevent it carrying infection to the consumer.
5. The manufacturing of any kind of goods for commercial purposes or the performance of any work known as "shop work" in the home of any person suffering from pulmonary or other communicable form of tuberculosis is prohibited, unless the product is such as can be sterilized, and unless sterilization is done in strict accordance with the requirements of the local board of health.

BOYS PIG CLUBS
BEING ORGANIZED.A Movement that is Rapidly Developing this Great Industry.

The NEWS has frequently of late had something to say concerning the formation of boys' pig clubs, separately or in connection with corn clubs.
The movement for organizing these clubs is rapidly spreading throughout Kentucky, and is rapidly assuming prominence as a factor in the development of a useful industry. The following article taken from the Courier-Journal will be interesting reading to all who desire to progress made in the line of animal husbandry.

"A movement for the organization of boys' pig clubs in the rural districts has been started in Kentucky. The pig clubs are designed to accomplish for the hog-raising industry what the boys' corn clubs have been doing for the improvement of corn growing.

"The pig clubs have been very successful in some of the Southern States.
A resume of their work in Louisiana recently has been published as a bulletin of the Louisiana State University. The progress of the organization in that State has been rapid. The first club was organized in Caddo parish by a superintendent of rural schools in the fall of 1910. During the winter clubs were formed in two other parishes, and in 1911 the campaign resulted in eleven additional parishes becoming interested. The Caddo club had fifty members when it was first instituted. In 1913 the membership of the clubs had increased to 1,669.

"At the 1913 State Fair 120 pigs were exhibited by club members, several winning blue ribbons in competition with leading growers and breeders throughout the South. Of the 1,669 members enrolled, 267 kept the records prescribed by the university directors and submitted formal reports of their work, while 145 others reported informally.

"Forty parishes had organized clubs last year and it is hoped that the work is only fairly begun. The university and the Federal Bureau of Animal Industry are co-operating for the encouragement of the movement. The boys are taught the best methods of selecting, feeding and caring for their pigs. It is a work in which most farm boys manifest a lively concern, and the good-natured rivalry in hog production is bound to have a good effect.

"The farmers of Kentucky are not doing as well in the pig-raising business as they ought to do, but in this respect they are doing better, perhaps, than most of the States in the South.
But the whole country needs to increase its production of hogs and Kentucky needs to contribute its full share to the increase. The boys' pig clubs should be a tremendous factor for improving the porcine status, and it is to be hoped they will become as numerous and as successful as the corn clubs."
